FARINGDON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

14/2/25

Dear students, parents and carers

This academic year Mr Dennett has been leading Faringdon Community College as Headteacher while retaining executive and strategic leadership of Larkmead School each week.

From September 2025 we will be drawing on the successful experience of this model for the leadership of Faringdon Community College. Mr Dennett will continue to work with FCC in an executive leadership role, being in school regularly each week to maintain the strategic development of the school and build on the progress of this current academic year.

In addition, we will be appointing a full-time experienced Headteacher whose focus will be at FCC five days per week. This will significantly increase the school's leadership capacity, with Mr Dennett and the new Headteacher working with the senior and middle leadership teams of the school.

We are excited about all that this model will bring to FCC. Our links with other Cambrian Learning Trust schools will continue to thrive and we will benefit from high level leadership alongside the full-time focus of a new Headteacher. Mr Dennett will continue in his current role at FCC for the remainder of this academic year, working with the wider leadership team to deliver the priorities for FCC and support the successful transition to the new model for September.

Yours sincerely

Paul Ray
Chair of Governors
